

BELOW IS A POEM, Be My Last Thought Today
WRITTEN BY OUR OWN Phyllis Jubal.

Take a few moments to read it, another moment to pray it, and then let her know what you think when you see her Sunday.

Be My Last Thought Today

Be in everything I do,
Be the whispers that I pray,
Be in the morning dew
Be my last thought today

I'm willing that You take
Every moment that You give
I want to know you more,
For only You do I live.

Be my only vision,
Be my saving grace
Be kindness through my touch
I'll stay in Your embrace.

I'm throwing all away,
That life you might restore.
Please come and resurrect;
My spirit, make it Yours.

Be my only passion,
Be in my work and play,
Be in my countenance,
Be my life every day.

Let me hear You every minute,
Let me sing Your songs each day.
Let me love who You love,
Let me shine for You I pray.

Be a saving ray of hope
Be my righteousness, my stay.
Be peacefulness around me,
Be my last thought today

Remember the Zoggs, friends of ours who are now serving the Lord in the Dominick Republic.

Pray for continued health, strength, patience, focus on the purposes of God, and grace for the necessary adjustments.

We already miss them in a BIG way in the Food Pantry. It will take between five and ten people to replace them. [hint, hint]
