

Rise up, O men of God!

Have done with lesser things.

Give heart and mind and soul and strength to serve the King of kings.

Lift high the cross of Christ!

Tread where his feet have trod.

As brothers of the Son of Man,

rise up, O men of God!

Gentlemen.

I call you to a special feasting fast. Please take this call seriously; this is NOT a joke! I challenge you to for the next week to regard every drink and every piece of food chewed and swallowed as a very serious reminder of the LIFE which we have in God. We cannot live, function, or do battle in the natural without food and water. Neither can we live, function, or do battle without continually receiving the life of the living God.

As surely as food and drink become an integral part of our physical body, giving strength and sustenance to our natural life, so it is that focusing on and receiving from the living God sustains our spiritual life. He is in us and we are in HIM and we need to keep that focus in the minutes and hours of our days. It is written, “Man shall not live by bread alone, but by EVERY WORD WHICH IS PROCEEDING OUT OF THE MOUTH OF GOD.” That needs to be our focus.... continually.....so.....every time you pause to take a drink of water or taste a bit of food, let that be a reminder that you – we – need to be receiving from HIM..... and we are doing just that – receiving from HIM. He is our strength, wisdom, and life.

If you should rise to get a drink in the middle of the night, pause to look up to HIM. And later, if you should be drinking your coffee and suddenly remember that you have forgotten and are just doing your physical thing of drinking coffee, ...then... just immediately flash up a prayer saying, “Lord, I need You more than this coffee...and I draw upon You now. You are in me and I am in You. Please release more of Yourself in me in this very moment for it is more needed than this small drink.”

And then thankfully receive from HIM. Just as surely as the coffee will become a part of you, so God becomes a larger part of who you are as you thus receive HIM by faith.

Please join me in this essential time of FEASTING ON GOD. This is important; please prayerfully respond to this desperate need and call.
