

Jelly-Beans

God is looking sons and daughters to be jellybean dispensers. He has spiritual multi-colored multi-flavored jelly beans that people in our worlds desperately need. He is looking for people who would be willing to dispense just one or two spiritual jelly beans here and there throughout the day – every day. The particular jellybean and person or place is to be determined by God. The task is not difficult; it is simply dropping whatever tiny little jellybean God deems necessary whenever and wherever and for whomever He desires.

The little white jellybean might be a prayer for a passing motorist. A pink jellybean might be a smile and whispered blessing for the clerk or waitress. A green one might be reserved for the cop who just flagged you over to give you a speeding ticket. Or a red one might be a blessing for your boss who just gave you a raise - or a pink slip. A blue one might be an encouraging word reserved for some family member.....

Of course you will need to be tuned in to hear what God has in mind for you today. It will take tiny moments in time, and a fair amount of determination to stay on track but it really is not hard... it is just a little thing... just one little jellybean.... and then another ...and then.... another.

Hundreds of people have come to realize that God is looking for people who will be available for intimate fellowship and willing to respond to His little nudges to do His will... like dropping a jellybean every once in a while all day long. Such people are surprisingly hard to find.

Jesus lived His life as a jelly-bean dispenser. He said, "I can do nothing on My own initiative.....I do not seek My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me... For I did not speak on My own initiative, but the Father Himself who sent Me has given Me a commandment as to what to say and what to speak." [John 5:30 & 12:49] He went around "doing good" because He was sensitive and obedient to His Father. He is our example and if He lives within us, He is likely to still be dispensing Spiritual Jelly Beans to us.... and through us... if we will allow Him to.

Today God is still looking for jellybean dispensers. I wonder how many jellybeans He would direct you to give away today – if you were listening and willing to be a spiritual jelly bean dispenser.

Well, you get the idea and maybe the message. Now it is up to you.

This Sunday, you can let me know how many jellybeans you gave away on Friday or Saturday or during the last week.

This is what being CHRIST'S-MAN is about ..... yup..... its all about spiritual 😊 😊 jelly 😊 😊 beans!

Love,
George
